The position of these banks is reviewed at the end of every cooperative year both by Reserve Bank of India and also by the State Level Review Committee headed by the Registrar of Cooperative Societies and such banks which satisfy prescribed norms are deleted from the list. Reserve Bank of India has reported that 28 banks have been deleted from the list of weak banks during the years 1982 to 1984 on the basis of such a review.

(d) to (g) Shri Adhinath Sahakari Bank Ltd. Pune had sought deletion of its name from the list of weak bank but Reserve Bank of India has not agreed to the deletion, as, in its view the bank did not satisfy the norms for deletion.
